The Graduate School nurtures a vibrant community of graduate students and post-doctoral scholars, fosters collaboration across departments, programs, and campuses in research and teaching, and facilitates the preparation of graduate students and post-doctoral scholars for their future careers.

The Graduate School: Optional Steps

Campus Change:

- Please request campus changes through your program, and confirm with ISSS that the campus location is correct on your visa documents.

Options if you are unable to attend Fall 2023 term:

For incoming students facing this difficult dilemma, The Graduate School currently has 2 options (possibly 3):

- 1.) With approval from your admitted program, you may defer your admission up to 1 full academic year from when your application was submitted.
- 2.) Withdraw your application from consideration.
- 3.) Program requests late arrival on your behalf.

A request of a deferral, or application withdrawal can be made through the Accounts & Forms area of your Application Status page.

Request Late Arrival

For students to have the best chance for academic success, it is critical that they arrive and begin classes on time. Graduate students enrolled in on-campus programs are required by The Graduate School to arrive by the first day of the semester. In rare instances, a department may wish to request an exception for one of their graduate students to arrive after the first day of the semester. If you would like to request a late arrival, please contact your program at msbapm@uconn.edu.

More information about the late arrival process including the implications of a late arrival, academic and GA considerations and deadlines may be found on our late arrival webpage.
